RUTGERS SCARLET KNIGHTS (1-1) vs. SACRED HEART PIONEERS (2-0)

Thursday • Nov. 17, 2011 • 7:30 p.m.

Rutgers Athletic Center (8,000) • Piscataway, N.J.

Web: The game will be available live via the web at ScarletKnights.com on RVision Presented by AT&T with Danny Breslau and Adam Helfgott calling the action with Alexa Datt as the court-side reporter.

Radio: The contest will be broadcast live on the Rutgers Radio Network, WOR 710 AM in New York and WCTC 1450 AM in New Brunswick. Chris Carlin will serve as play-by-play announcer and Dick Lloyd will provide commentary.

Rutgers returns to the friendly confines of the RAC to host Sacred Heart Thursday evening in a 7:30 p.m. tip-off. The contest is the first of four games the Scarlet Knights will play in the Triple Crown Cancun Challenge and the initial of two stateside. After squaring off against the Pioneers, RU will host Hampton on Sunday (Nov. 20) before travelling to Cancun, Mexico to meet Illinois State (Nov. 22) and then either Illinois or Richmond on Nov. 23.

Thursday's game will mark the first meeting on the collegiate hardwood between the Scarlet Knights and the Pioneers.

Rutgers, under the leadership of second-year head coach Mike Rice, is coming off a 72-57 loss at ACC foe Miami (Fla.) Tuesday evening. Sophomore guard Austin Carroll came off the bench to score a team-high 11 points on four-of-four shooting during a frustrating night for the Scarlet Knights. RU shot 36.9 percent (24-65) and did not register a point (0-6) from the charity stripe. After trailing by as many as 19 points in the second half, Rutgers reduced the deficit to six (48-42) with 9:29 remaining, but could get no closer. Miami scored 22 points off turnovers, while RU registered just four points off Hurricane miscues. Sophomore forward Gilydas Biruta grabbed a game-high 11 rebounds.

Junior wing Dane Miller and freshman guard Eli Carter are both averaging 9.5 points-per-game to lead the Scarlet Knights in the scoring column. Biruta is averaging a team-high 8.0 rebounds-per-contest, while also shooting a team-best 53.8 percent (7-13) from the field.

Sacred Heart, under the direction of 34th-year head coach Dave Bike, was picked to finish eighth in the NEC in the league's preseason coaches poll. The team is fresh from a 74-63 home victory over Stony Brook Tuesday night. All five Pioneer starters scored in double figures, including forward Stan Dulaire and center Justin Swidowski, who posted 14 points each. Sacred Heart committed 19 turnovers, but overcame the miscues by shooting 49.1 percent (26-53) and by out-rebounding Stony Brook by a 39-28 margin. Swidowski is averaging 16.0 points-per-game to lead the Pioneers in the scoring column, while Dulaire is averaging a team-best 8.5 rebounds-per-contest.

PLAYING THE BEST FOR ALL TO SEE

Rutgers will play 11 nationally televised games, including nine on the ESPN network (ESPN/ESPN2/ESPNU), to highlight its 2011-12 schedule. Every regular season RU game is televised in some form, whether or it be national or regional television, or via the web (ESPN3 and RVision). The Scarlet Knights will play 16 teams (15 NCAA, 1 NIT) that earned postseason bids in 2010-11, resulting in 18 of 31 games this season against postseason opponents.

COACH RICE AT A GLANCE

Head coach Mike Rice entered his second season with a relentless style and heightened expectations. Last year, Rutgers defeated ACC foe Miami and SEC-member Auburn during the non-conference schedule in the midst of a 9-2 start, the best for a first-year coach at RU since 1945. It signaled the first time in 11 years RU had defeated teams from multiple "Big Six/BCS" leagues in the regular season. During the BIG EAST portion, the Scarlet Knights downed No. 9-ranked Villanova in one of college basketball's most thrilling finishes and won two of three against rival Seton Hall. An overtime victory against the Pirates at Madison Square Garden marked RU's first BIG EAST tournament win since 2006.

ROSTER BOASTS A PAIR OF BIG EAST ALL-ROOKIE SELECTIONS

The Scarlet Knights have a pair of BIG EAST Conference All-Rookie honorees on the roster in junior wing Dane Miller and sophomore forward Gilvydas Biruta. Miller was one of two unanimous selections to the squad in 2009-10 and augmented his game last season by developing into one of the league's top defensive stoppers. Biruta was first among all BIG EAST freshmen last season in rebounding, field goal percentage and free throw percentage.

HIGHEST RATED RECRUITING CLASS IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Rutgers welcomes the highest-rated class in school history into the fold. The class has been ranked in the top 10 nationally by multiple outlets. All of RU's newcomers enrolled in classes this past summer and competed together in an NCAA sanctioned summer league. The true freshmen class is comprised entirely of players ranked among the top 150 recruits nationally: All-American guard Myles Mack (No. 62 overall by ESPN), guard Jerome Seagears (No. 89 overall by Scout), guard Eli Carter (114 overall by Rivals), wing Malick Kone (No. 145 overall by Hoop Scoop), forward/center Derrick Randall (119 overall by Hoop Scoop) and forward Greg Lewis (127 overall by Hoop Scoop).

NO SCHOLARSHIP SENIORS

The Scarlet Knights do not have a scholarship senior on the active roster, but have five experienced players in the form of returning starters Miller and Biruta and returning letterwinners Austin Johnson, Mike Poole and Austin Carroll. RU is faced with having to replace a trio of starting seniors from the 2010-11 season, including All-MET performer Jonathan Mitchell.

JACK SIDELINED

Rutgers University head men's basketball coach Mike Rice announced on October 10 that redshirt freshman forward Kadeem Jack was having surgery on his right foot to address an injury that occurred during a preseason workout on Oct. 7. Jack is expected to be sidelined approximately three to four months.

"Kadeem has worked extremely hard in preparation for the season," said Rice. "He will remain very much involved in all team activities and we look forward to his complete recovery."

GETTING IT DONE IN THE CLASSROOM

Under Rice, Rutgers basketball has excelled not only on the hardwood, but also in the classroom. All three 2010-11 seniors - Jonathan Mitchell, James Beatty and Mike Coburn - graduated in May. The Scarlet Knights also had three student-athletes recognized as BIG EAST Academic All Stars, including Gilvydas Biruta, who posted a 3.57 grade point average for the academic year.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Rutgers men's basketball program takes a proactive approach to civic responsibility. With the help of director of player development Eric Murdock, Coach Rice has been proactive in the program's efforts to make a difference in the lives of children and the disadvantaged. The team participates in a multitude of community outreach initiatives, including the "Scarlet Letters" pen pal program, "Read Across America" and "Toys for Tots." Rutgers basketball players volunteer at Elijah's Promise soup kitchen in New Brunswick and are active in the NABC's "Ticket to Reading Rewards" program. In addition, players volunteer at the United Way's Gifts for the Season program and deliver toys to children during the holidays via the Student Athlete Advisory Committee Toy Drive. The program's involvement in "Ticket to Reading Rewards" earned notable recognition in May. U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan, NCAA President Mark Emmert, Rice and Duke head coach Mike Krzyzewski were among a contingent of dignitaries in a celebration at the Myles J. McManus Middle School in Linden. Rice was also recognized at Yankee Stadium that same month in a pregame ceremony, along with several other coaches, for his involvement with Coaches vs. Cancer. On November 5, Coach Rice and his wife Kerry hosted a tip-off dinner at the Rutgers Athletic Center on Friday evening to benefit the American Cancer Society and its Coaches vs. Cancer program. Fans and friends of the program had the opportunity for an up-close look at the Scarlet Knights at the fun and friendly affair, which was centered around a team practice on the RAC floor.

THE COACHES' KIDS

Rice - Son of Mike Rice Sr., head coach at Duquesne (1979-82) and Youngstown State (1982-87). Rice coached for 13 years at the high school level, posting a career record of 245-71, before moving to college coaching in 1977. In four seasons at Duquesne, Rice amassed a 62-49 record, earning two berths in the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) and twice being named the Eastern Eight Coach of the Year. At Youngstown State, Rice picked up 75 wins in five years, as the Penguins twice finished second in the Ohio Valley Conference.

Martelli - Son of Phil Martelli, the current head coach of Saint Joseph's in Philadelphia. Martelli is in his 17th season with the Hawks, coming into the year with a 300-209 record, including 17 postseason wins. Martelli has guided SJU to 20 or more victories six times in 16 seasons and was the 2004 Consensus National Coach of the Year.

McMullen - Son of Tim McMullen, the current head coach of Letchworth High School in western New York. McMullen - who began coaching in 1983 - has won over 300 games with the Indians. McMullen led the squad to its only sectional championship in 1999, with Corky on the squad, and the school's lone Livingston County Division II championship in 2007.

Wachtel - Son of Artie Wachtel, former assistant coach at Long Island University and head coach of Perth Amboy Tech. Wachtel spent 18 years with the Blackbirds, working with head coach Paul Lizzo from 1976-1994. In 1995, Wachtel became the head coach of the Patriots.

Scarlet Raiders by a 46-33 margin to earn the victory. Carter made seven-of-15 field goals, including four-of-six from behind the arc. Kone shot six-of-10.

Freshman point guard Myles Mack and sophomore forward Gilvydas Biruta also registered double figure scoring totals for the home squad. Mack posted 13 points on three-of-six shooting, while Biruta had 11 points on five-of-six field goals with seven rebounds. Jerome Seagears, part of the highly-touted rookie guard trio along with Carter and Mack, had six points, six rebounds and four assists in 23 minutes. Mack also had four helpers.

The Scarlet Knights limited the visitors to 34.5 percent (20-58) shooting, and just a 21.5 percent mark in the opening half.

RU-Newark scored the contest's first points, but the Scarlet Knights responded with a five point run and never looked back. The home squad led 35-21 at halftime before establishing its largest advantage of 24 points (64-40) with under six minutes remaining.

Mike Rice enters his second season "On the Banks" in 2011-12 on the heels of an intriguing 2010-11 campaign and with the highest-rated recruiting class in school history in tow. The 17th head coach in the history of the Rutgers men's basketball program, the Pittsburgh, Pa. native has made a definite impact on Garden State hoops and will continue to push the Scarlet Knights to greater heights with a relentless style that has become his trademark.

Rice balances an indomitable courtside manner with an approachable, self-deprecating persona off the court. The resulting dynamic has paid early dividends for an RU fan base hungry for postseason returns. With just eight scholarship players on the roster last season, the Scarlet Knights earned many notable victories. Off the court, enthusiasm for the program is tangible with a top 10 ranked recruiting class poised to call Piscataway home for the next four years.

Rice wasted little time making his mark in 2010-11. The Scarlet Knights' 9-2 beginning marked the best start for a first-year head coach at RU since Donald S. White began his tenure with a 10-2 record in 1945-46. Included were wins over ACC foe Miami and SEC-member Auburn. It signaled the first time Rutgers had defeated teams from multiple "Big Six/BCS" leagues in the regular season since Nov. 1999.

The nonconference success extended to the always rugged BIG EAST conference campaign. Rutgers downed No. 9-ranked Villanova at home in one of college basketball's most thrilling finishes and won two of three against rival Seton Hall. An overtime victory against the Pirates at Madison Square Garden marked RU's first BIG EAST tournament win since 2006.

Rice was named the Rutgers' 2010-11 Coach of the Year by the University's student newspaper, the Daily Targum.

Jonathan Mitchell and Gilydas Biruta earned accolades both on and off the court under Rice. Mitchell was an All-Metropolitan selection and was joined by fellow senior tri-captains James Beatty and Mike Coburn in their caps and gowns, as all three earned diplomas in May. Biruta was a BIG EAST All-Rookie honoree and capped his freshman campaign with a 3.57 cumulative grade point average.

The success on the court and in the classroom also extends into the community. With the help of Director of Player Development Eric Murdock, Rice has been proactive in the program's efforts to make a difference in the lives of children and the disadvantaged. The team participates in a multitude of community outreach initiatives, including the "Scarlet Letters" pen pal program, "Read Across America" and "Toys for Tots." Rutgers basketball players also volunteer at Elijah's Promise soup kitchen in New Brunswick and are active in the NABC's "Ticket to Reading Rewards" program. In addition, players volunteer at the United Way's Gifts for the Season program and deliver toys to children during the holidays via the Student Athlete Advisory Committee Toy Drive.

The program's involvement in "Ticket to Reading Rewards" earned notable recognition in May. U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan, NCAA President Mark Emmert, Rice and Duke head coach Mike Krzyzewski were among a contingent of dignitaries in a celebration at the Myles J. McManus Middle School in Linden. Rice was also recognized at Yankee Stadium that same month in a pregame ceremony, along with several other coaches, for his involvement with Coaches vs. Cancer.

Rice compiled a 73-31 (.702) record as head coach at Robert Morris University en route to three consecutive postseason appearances and a pair of NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament berths before being named head coach at Rutgers.

Rice signed a five-year contract through the 2014-15 season.

A graduate of Fordham University in New York, Rice has made 10 NCAA or NIT appearances as either a head or assistant coach during his 17-year tenure in the collegiate coaching ranks.

Rice directed Robert Morris to first place, regular season finishes in each of his three seasons (2007-08 to 2009-10) and captured back-to-back Northeast Conference Tournament championships in 2009 and 2010. He was named the NABC District Coach of the Year, as well as NEC Jim Phelan Coach of the Year, in both 2008 and 2009. A total of 17 school records were either tied or broken under Rice's watch, including victories (26 in 2007-08), NEC wins (16 in 2007-08) and consecutive victories (14 in 2007-08). RMU also posted 15-straight NEC road wins over the course of the 2007-08 and 2008-09 seasons, a conference record.

In 2009-10, Rice directed Robert Morris to a 23-12 (15-3 NEC) record. The Colonials' season came to a close in a hard-fought, 73-70, overtime loss to No. 2-seeded Villanova in an NCAA opening round contest in Providence, R.I. In 2008-09, RMU posted a 24-11 (15-3 NEC) mark and lost 77-62 to No. 2-seeded and eventual national finalist Michigan State in Minneapolis, Minn. In 2007-08, the Colonials had a 26-8 (16-2 NEC) record and concluded its campaign with an 87-81 NIT loss to No. 1-seeded Syracuse at the Carrier Dome.

Prior to assuming the reins at RMU, Rice served as an assistant and primary recruiter at the University of Pittsburgh under head coach Jamie Dixon in 2006-07. He helped the Panthers to a second-place regular season finish and a spot in the BIG EAST Championship final before the team advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. Pitt finished with an overall record of 29-8 and Rice was instrumental in attracting a 2007-08 recruiting class that was ranked 16th by Scouts, Inc. and 12th by Hoop Scoop.

From 2004 to 2006, Rice was an assistant under head coach Phil Martelli at Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia, Pa. He helped the Hawks to a combined record of 43-26 (623) and a pair of NIT bids. In 2004-05, Saint Joseph's finished with a 24-12 record and advanced to the NIT final.

Rice began his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater following his graduation, before serving as an assistant coach at Marquette (1994-97), Niagara (1997-98) and Chicago State (1998-2001). At Marquette, Rice was instrumental in helping the Golden Eagles to consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances in 1996 and 1997. Marquette claimed the 1997 Conference USA Tournament championship and finished as the NIT runner-up in 1995.

A 1991 graduate of Fordham with a Bachelor of Arts degree in communications, Rice was a three-year starter for the Rams at guard. He appeared in 117 career games, serving as captain of the 1990-91 squad that posted 25-8 record and earned an NIT berth. Rice's 152 assists during his senior campaign rank as the sixth highest single-season output in school history.

Rice and his wife Kerry are the proud parents of two children, son Michael (13) and daughter Katie (11). From an athletic family, Rice's mother, Kathy, played basketball at Duquesne, while his sisters, Susan and Stephanie, both played tennis at Syracuse. His father, Mike Rice Sr., served as head men's basketball coach at both Duquesne (1979-82) and Youngstown State (1982-87) and currently works as the television color commentator for the NBA's Portland Trailblazers.

- The win pushes Rutgers all-time record in season openers to 73-27.
- RU climbs to 3-1 all-time against Dartmouth, winning the last three contests in the series. Against the Ivy League, the Scarlet Knights now hold a 79-131 record.
- For the first time since Louisville on Feb. 22, 2011, Rutgers had just one player score double-figures.
- Dane Miller scored 10-plus points for the 34th time in his career, with 12 points. The junior added six rebounds.
- Miller led the squad in scoring for the sixth time in his career and the first since at Seton Hall (Jan. 22) last season. The junior paced RU in rebounding for the 26th time in his career.
- The Scarlet Knights led the Big Green wire-to-wire, the first time since March 2, 2011 at DePaul. RU led two teams from start to finish last season (NJIT, Dec. 1, 2010).
- The Rutgers defense held Dartmouth to 4-of-22 (.182) shooting from behind the arc and did not allow a field goal for the first 8:08 of the second half. The 18.2 percent shooting from three tied an opponent's game low from last season.
- Eli Carter and Myles Mack both earned their first starts in a Rutgers uniform. Dane Miller got the nod for a team-best 50th-straight contest.
- Carter, Mack, Malick Kone, Greg Lewis, Derrick Randall, and Jerome Seagears all saw their first action for the Scarlet Knights.
- Of the 11 players that saw action, eight had four-plus points and six tallied seven-plus.

Game Notables:

- Sophomore Austin Carroll broke his career high with 11 points. The guard also tied a personal-best three treys. It marked the first time Carroll has led the Scarlet Knights in scoring.
- Eli Carter notched double-figures for the first time in his RU career, pouring in 10 points on the night.
- The Scarlet Knights allowed seven three-pointers in the first half. RU allowed seven-or-more treys in a half four times last season and just once in the nonconference schedule (at Monmouth).
- Gilydas Biruta nearly posted a double-double with eight points and 11 rebounds, including seven on the offensive end. It marked the third time the sophomore has pulled down double-figure boards, tying a career high.
- Biruta led the team in rebounding for the 12th time in his career.
- Of the 10 Scarlet Knights that saw action, nine had at least two points and five had seven-plus.
- Head coach Mike Rice went with the starting lineup of Carter, Myles Mack, Dane Miller, Gilydas Biruta and Austin Johnson for the second-straight game.
- Rutgers falls to 5-9 all-time against Miami.
- The Scarlet Knights failed to put three players in double-digits for the second-straight game. Last year, RU was 3-10 when two or fewer players scored 10-plus.
