

WELCOME

and thank you for your support of the 2011 Rutgers Football team. Due to construction, there have been many changes to the roadways in and around the Rutgers University campuses over the past few years. As such, we have created this parking guide to educate all of our fans on our updated parking policies.

Attendance in 2011 will be at an all-time high which will create more traffic on game days. Please plan ahead, drive carefully, and arrive to the game and home safely.
