Rutgers will look for win number 600 in program history Saturday as the Scarlet Knights host the Tigers of Texas Southern. Kickoff from Rutgers Stadium is set for 3:30 p.m.

Rutgers looks to extend its winning streak to four games after a 34-13 victory at Maryland the last time out for the Scarlet Knights on Sept. 26 at Byrd Stadium. Texas Southern looks to rebound from a 52-18 defeat at the hands of Texas State in its last game on Sept. 26.

The Rutgers Radio Network has pre-game coverage at 2:30 p.m. Chris Carlin, Ray Lucas and Anthony Fucilli will call the action.

Series Information

Saturday's game is the first for Rutgers vs. Texas Southern. It also marks the first time Rutgers has played an opponent from the SWAC.

Going for Number 600

Rutgers enters Saturday's game with an overall record of 599-591-42 in 140 years of football. The Scarlet Knights would become the 38th team in NCAA history to reach the 600-win plateau.

Rutgers would become the fourth team in the BIG EAST to reach 600 victories, joining West Virginia, Syracuse and Pittsburgh.

Rutgers Versus the Lone Star State

Rutgers is 0-2 all-time vs. teams from the state of Texas, with both losses coming vs. the University of Texas in 1997 and 1999.

The Scarlet Knights are 1-1 all-time in games played in the Longhorn State. The Scarlet Knights won their first bowl in school history in 2006 with a 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl at Reliant Stadium in Houston. Rutgers lost 48-14 to No. 12/10 Texas in 1997 in Austin.

In the Month of October

Rutgers is 14-16 all-time under Greg Schiano in the month of October, including a 10-6 mark since 2005.

The best month of October during Schiano's tenure for the Scarlet Knights was in 2006, when RU was a perfect 3-0.

Rutgers Football Media Policies

Player Interviews

- All player interviews must be arranged through Jason Baum in the Athletic Communications Office at least one day in advance. Players are available in person on Mondays at the weekly Rutgers Football Luncheon, and following practice on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, pending class schedules/availability.
- Please consult with Jason Baum or Doug Drabik regarding availability. Player availability at other times will vary from week to week. A time mutually convenient for the player and the member of the media can be set up by the Office of Athletic Communications. During a traditional game week, there will be no player interviews after Wednesday until following the game.

Coach Schiano Interviews

- All interview requests must be arranged through Jason Baum. Coach Schiano will be available to the media every Monday on the BIG EAST Coaches Conference call at 11 a.m., Monday at the weekly Rutgers Football Luncheon at 11:30 a.m. and after practice on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Covering Practice

- Practice will be open to the media for the final 25 minutes on Tuesday and Wednesday. Practice is closed to the media on Sunday.

Filming at Practice

- On Tuesday and Wednesday only, video and photo access is available during the final 25 minutes of practice during individual periods.
- Tripods are not permitted on the practice field and media members must stand at least five yards off the sideline.

Post-Game Interviews

- Coach Schiano and players, following the designated cooling off period, will be made available after each game to members of the media. Coach Schiano's press conference will take place in the team meeting room of the Hale Center, which is located opposite the playing field from the press box. With approximately four minutes remaining in the game, members of the media will be escorted across the field towards the Hale Center.
- Rutgers' locker room is open to the media following the cooling off period.
- The visiting team's press conference will be held in the field hockey locker room, inside the Hale Center.

Weekly Press Luncheon

- Coach Schiano and selected players will be available each Monday at the Rutgers Football Luncheon. Coach Schiano will address the media from 11:30-12 noon, while the players are available from 1:00-1:45 p.m.
- The press conference will be held in the team meeting room of the Hale Center (second floor) while lunch and player interviews will be held in the Rutgers Stadium press box.

BIG EAST Teleconference

- The BIG EAST football coaches will hold a weekly teleconference for the media taking place each Monday during the season and concluding on November 30. Each coach will be available for approximately 10 minutes. Schiano will take part in the conference call at 11:00 a.m.

Texas Connection

Rutgers has one player on its roster from Texas - true freshman tight end Tony Trahan of Coppell. Trahan moved from quarterback to tight end as a senior at Coppell High School, located just outside Dallas.

He finished his senior season ranked as one of the top prep tight ends in Texas by Rivals.com and finished the season with 20 receptions for 230 yards and two touchdowns.

Texas Southern has two New Jersey natives on its roster - freshman offensive lineman Kenneth Hall of Plainfield and sophomore defensive lineman Ashton Wilder of Newark.

10 of 11

Rutgers has won 10 of its last 11 games, dating back to the 2008 season. The Scarlet Knights are 6-1 at Rutgers Stadium during the streak.

Over the last 11 games, Rutgers has held five opponents to under 300 yards of total offense, including a low of 168 yards of total offense vs. Syracuse (11/8/08).

The rushing defense has also been stout during the streak, holding five teams under 100 yards rushing, including a low of 28 yards last time out at Maryland.

Stingy vs. the Run

Rutgers has been stingy vs. the run in 2009, especially in the last two games. The Scarlet Knights held Florida International and Maryland under 50 yards rushing, the first time during the nine-year tenure of Greg Schiano that Rutgers held the opposition to less than 50 yards rushing in two straight games.

The 28 yards rushing by Maryland was the lowest amount of rushing yards allowed by a Greg Schiano team on the road.

For the season, Rutgers has held the opposition to 3.0 yards per rush and just 87 rushing yards per game.

Fewest Rushing Yards Allowed (Schiano Era)

- 1. -23 yards vs. Cincinnati (11/26/05)
- 2. -11 yards vs. Pittsburgh (9/30/05)
- 3. -6 vs. Ohio (9/16/06)
- 4. 10 vs. Norfolk State (9/15/07)
- 5. 28 at Maryland (9/26/09)
- 6. 30 vs. Kent State (9/18/04)
- 7. 31 vs. Kansas State (12/28/06)
- 8. 32 vs. Morgan State (9/27/08)
- 9. 37 vs. Syracuse (11/29/03)
- 10. 39 at Temple (10/25/03)

Under 100 = W

Rutgers has won four consecutive games when passing for less than 100 yards in a game.

The last two times Rutgers has been held under 100 yards passing - 42 at Maryland this season and 42 at Army in 2007 - the Scarlet Knights won both games by a combined score of 75-19 and rushed for 611 yards in the two victories.

Rutgers also won two games in 2006 when passing for less than 100 yards - 72 at Pittsburgh and 83 vs. Ohio.

A Continuing Trend

Rutgers is on track to allow under four yards per rush for the fourth time in five seasons. While eight games remain in the season, Rutgers' opponents have averaged just 3.0 yards per rush on 116 attempts through four games.

The Scarlet Knights are tied for 13th nationally, allowing 87.75 rushing yards per game. RU also ranks second in the BIG EAST in rushing yards allowed per game.

Against the Run Under Coach Schiano

Protecting the Pigskin

Rutgers is +16 in turnover differential over its last 11 games (10-1). The Scarlet Knights have forced 12 turnovers this season, including at least one in every game. In total, Rutgers has forced a turnover in 10 straight games.

Rutgers ranks third nationally and leads the BIG EAST in turnover differential (2.0).

In 2009, Rutgers is +8 in turnover differential (12 turnovers forced, 4 giveaways).

Over the last 11 games, Rutgers has forced a total of 29 turnovers.

Sweet Te

Sophomore place-kicker San San Te leads the BIG EAST and is tied for sixth nationally with 2.0 field goals per game.

Te is 8-for-11 on field goal attempts and a perfect 11-for-11 on PATs in 2009.

He ranks fourth in the BIG EAST in scoring and is tied for 31st in the Football Bowl Subdivision with 8.75 points per game.

Among kickers, Te leads the conference in scoring per game.

Shutout in Three Straight Seasons

Rutgers is one of five teams in the nation to record a shutout in each of the last three seasons. In 2006, Rutgers blanked Illinois and Navy. In 2007, Norfolk State was shutout and Morgan State was held scoreless in 2008.

Rutgers - (2006: Illinois and Navy; 2007: Norfolk State; 2008: Morgan State)

Boise State - (2006: Sacramento State; 2007: New Mexico State and Utah State; 2008: New Mexico State)

Savage Era Begins in Impressive Fashion

Tom Savage was the fifth quarterback in school history to start as a true freshman for the Scarlet Knights and became just the second true freshman QB to win a game for the Scarlet Knights in RU's 45-7 win over Howard. He joined Ryan Hart (2002/4 starts), Ryan Cubit (2001/11 starts), Mike McMahon (1997/5 starts) and Jacque LaPrairie (1981/1 start) as the only true freshmen to start at quarterback in school history for Rutgers.

True Freshman Quarterbacks During the Schiano Era

Greg Schiano has played three true freshmen at quarterback during his tenure as head coach - Tom Savage in 2009, Ryan Cubit in 2001 and Ryan Hart in 2002.

Savage made his Scarlet Knight debut vs. Cincinnati in the season-opener. The true freshman was 15-of-23 passing for 135 yards and a touchdown vs. the Bearcats.

Savage, a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter at quarterback for head coach Dan Algeo at Cardinal O'Hara High School, was rated as the No. 3 pro style quarterback in the nation by Tom Lemming -MaxPreps.com and the No. 8 pro style quarterback nationally by SuperPrep Magazine.

Record-Setting First Start for Savage

Tom Savage finished the Howard game 8-for-13 for 223 yards and two touchdowns. Savage set a Rutgers school record for yards per completion by a true freshman QB with 27.8 yards per completion. He broke the single-game record set by Ryan Cubit vs. Navy in 2001, when Cubit passed for an average of 25.1 yards per completion vs. the Mids (13-of-20, 327 yards).

The 223 yards passing was the fifth-best single-game total in school history by a true freshman.

What Can Brown Do for You?

Tim Brown has continued to get better and better as his career has progressed at Rutgers. The senior WR leads the team with 358 yards receiving in 2009. Brown also leads RU in yards per reception (23.9) and receiving yards per game (89.5).

Brown leads all BIGEAST receivers in yards per reception and ranks third in the conference in receiving yards per game. Below is a year-by-year breakdown of Brown's receiving yards per game:

Tim Brown Year-by-Year

| Year | GP | Rec. | Yards | Avg. | TD | Yards Per Game |
|------|----|------|-------|------|----|----------------|
| 2006 | 10 | 8 | 202 | 25.2 | 3 | 20.2 |
| 2007 | 12 | 24 | 340 | 14.2 | 2 | 28.3 |
| 2008 | 13 | 27 | 565 | 20.9 | 6 | 43.5 |
| 2009 | 4 | 15 | 358 | 23.9 | 1 | 89.5 |

Sensational Start for Sanu

Mohamed Sanu became the first true freshman to start at wide receiver for the Scarlet Knights in his first game in the Greg Schiano era. Sanu is also the only player on the current roster to start as a true freshman in his first game as a Scarlet Knight.

Sanu caught the most passes by a true freshman WR in his first career start at Rutgers with 10 receptions for 101 yards vs. Cincinnati.

Sanu is just the fourth true freshman to start at wide receiver for Rutgers since Greg Schiano became head coach in 2001.

Sanu leads the team with 16 receptions on the season.

Touchdown Brown

Tim Brown is tied for eighth in school history with 12 career touchdown receptions. The big-play threat from Miami ended the 2008 season with six touchdown catches, the 10th-best single-season total in RU history.

Brown has averaged 42.1 yards per touchdown reception during his career. Labeled the "most dangerous deep threat in the BIG EAST" by Lindy's, Brown finished second on the team in 2008 with 27 receptions for 565 yards.

He has averaged 19.2 yards per reception for his career, including 20.9 per reception in 2008 and 23.9 in 2009.

Brown is also tied for fourth in school history with six career 100-yard receiving games.

Quick Strike Attack

Rutgers had four touchdown drives of two plays or less in the first half, both in the second quarter vs. Howard. The Scarlet Knights had two, two-play drives encompassing 67 yards and six yards and two, one-play drives encompassing 68 and 57 yards.

Rutgers last had four touchdown drives of two plays or less at Pittsburgh on Oct. 25, 2008. QB Mike Teel orchestrated three, one-play drives and one two-play TD drive versus the Panthers.

200 On the Ground

For the 20th time since Kyle Flood joined the squad in 2005 as offensive line coach, the Scarlet Knights rushed for 200 yards in a game with 245 yards on the ground in the Howard victory.

The Scarlet Knights averaged 5.6 yards per carry vs. the Bison, including 7.3 yards per carry for sophomore RB Jourdan Brooks (124 yards, 3 TDs).

Back-to-Back

Sophomore running back Joe Martinek became the first Scarlet Knight since Ray Rice in 2007 to rush for 100 yards in two consecutive games. Martinek went over the century mark for the first time in his career with 121 yards vs. Florida International. He eclipsed his career-high with 147 yards rushing, including 130 in the fourth quarter, including two touchdowns in the 34-13 victory over Maryland.

DC to TE

Redshirt freshman D.C. Jefferson has made a successful transition from quarterback to tight end for the Scarlet Knights. After moving to tight end in preseason camp, Jefferson earned the starting job vs. Howard and is currently listed as the starter on the depth chart.

Jefferson hauled in a 46-yard pass from Tom Savage on the first football thrown his way.

Jefferson has two receptions on the season for 81 yards.

AD Preseason All-American

Junior Anthony Davis arrived at Rutgers as the No. 1 recruit in the state of New Jersey and a five-star recruit according to several recruiting services. The Piscataway, N.J., native has not disappointed during his time "On the Banks" and was named a Preseason All-American by Athlon Sports in 2009.

Regarded as the "best pass-blocking tackle in the nation" by The Sporting News, Davis was a Second Team All-BIG EAST selection in 2008.

Just 19 years old, Davis started as a 17-year old true freshman for the Scarlet Knights at right guard before moving to left tackle in 2008.

Continued Success in the BIG EAST

The 2008 senior class for Rutgers was 17-11 in BIG EAST play over the last four seasons.

The 17 wins are the most over a four-year span in Rutgers' BIG EAST history.

Last season's winning record in the league marks the fourth time since joining the BIG EAST in 1991 that Rutgers finished with a winning record.

Greg Schiano has guided three of the squads with winning records in league play - 2005 (4-3), 2006 (5-2) and 2008 (5-2).

The Scarlet Knights finished tied for second in the BIG EAST with a 5-2 league record, with the two losses coming on the road in the first two conference games of the year at Cincinnati and at West Virginia by a combined 10 points.

Starting a Bowl Tradition

Before Greg Schiano's arrival at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights played in one bowl game in 131 seasons of football. In his first eight seasons at the helm of the program, Schiano has guided Rutgers to four consecutive bowl games.

The Scarlet Knights are one of 31 teams to play in four consecutive bowls. Among BCS members, Rutgers is one of 21 schools to play in four straight bowl games and just one of three BIG EAST programs to play in four consecutive bowls (Rutgers, West Virginia, USF).

All-time, Rutgers is 3-2 in postseason play.

Three Bowl Victories in Three Seasons

Rutgers is one of 11 teams nationally to win three bowl championships over the last three seasons. The Scarlet Knights are one of only nine teams from a BCS conference to win three bowls over the previous three years. In the BIG EAST, only Rutgers and West Virginia have won three straight bowls in the last three years.

The "Chop Shop"

A school-record crowd was in attendance on Labor Day as the Scarlet Knights opened the season vs. Cincinnati.

Over the last three years, Rutgers is 18-6 at home. Since taking over as head coach in 2001, Greg Schiano's teams are 27-22 at Rutgers Stadium.

Three Freshmen On ESPNU Top 150 List

Rutgers was the only school in the BIG EAST to have three of the nation's top 150 recruits on the ESPNU150 Class of 2009. Freshman CB Darrell Givens was rated as the nation's No. 61 recruit, Tom Savage was rated No. 125 and freshman DT Antwan Lowery was No. 134 on the top 150 list nationally.

2009 Recruiting Class Ranked Among Nation's Top 25

Rutgers 2009 recruiting class was ranked as the best in the BIG EAST and the No. 21 class nationally according to ESPN's Scouts, Inc.

Eight members of that recruiting class have played as true freshmen for the Scarlet Knights in 2009:

| |
|--|
| Steve Beauharnais , LB (Saddle Brook, N.J.) |
| Ka'Lial Glaud , LB (Atco, N.J.) |
| Duron Harmon , DB (Magnolia, Del.) |
| Mark Harrison , WR (Stratford, Conn.) |
| Mohamed Sanu , WR (South Brunswick, N.J.) |
| Tom Savage , QB (Springfield, Pa.) |
| Tony Trahan , TE (Coppell, Texas) |
| De'Antwan Williams , RB (Woodbridge, Va.) |

2009 First Time Starters

A total of 12 Scarlet Knights have made their debut in the starting lineup in 2009. Five of the 12 are freshmen, including a pair of true freshmen:

On This Date

Rutgers has played 20 times on Oct. 10, going 5-15. Over the 20 games on Oct. 10, the Scarlet Knights have been on the road 14 times on this date.

The last time Rutgers won on this date was in 1964. The Scarlet Knights defeated Lehigh 20-7.

The first time Rutgers played on Oct. 10 was in 1884 as Princeton blanked RU 20-0.

Coming of Age

Junior defensive end Jonathan Freeny has played his best football of his career in 2009. The Tampa native registered multiple sacks in consecutive games vs. Howard and FIU, becoming the first Scarlet Knight since Eric Foster in 2007 to do so.

Freeny is fourth in the conference and tied for 16th nationally in sacks. He is tied for fifth in the BIG EAST in tackles for loss.

He leads RU in both sacks (4) and tackles for loss (5).

Scouting Texas Southern

Texas Southern, under the direction of second-year head coach Johnnie Cole, enters Saturday's contest with a 1-3 record. The Tigers were idle last week following a 52-18 loss at the hands of Texas State on Sept. 26.

TSU is ranked among the top of the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in a number of categories, including passing offense (11th) and tackles for loss (14). The Tigers lead the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) with an offense that has averaged 266.75 passing yards per game.

Offensively, Texas Southern is led by junior quarterback Arvell Nelson who has seen time under center in all four games, completing 75-of-124 passes for 758 yards and two touchdowns. Nelson has rushed for a score this season as well.

The Tigers receiving corps is led by three receivers with 15 catches or more on the year. Senior Brian Haith is third in the SWAC in both receiving yards and receptions per game. Additionally, he is 16th in the FCS in receiving yard per game with an 89.5 yard average.

Texas Southern is also ranked atop the SWAC in both return games, standing third in punt and kickoff returns. Anthony Webb leads the Tigers and conference with an 11.20 yard average on punt returns.

The TSU defensive unit is led by junior linebacker Dejaun Fulghum who is tied for the team in tackles and leads the squad in tackles for loss and sacks. Fulghum is tied for the conference mark with 39 tackles. He is also tied for second in sacks (four) and tackles for loss (6.5).

GAME 1

September 7, 2009
Cincinnati 47, Rutgers 15

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – Rutgers dropped a 47-15 decision to BIG EAST foe Cincinnati at Rutgers Stadium before 53,737 fans, the largest crowd in school history. True freshman WR Mohammed Sanu had a strong debut, catching 10 passes for 101 yards while competing in a starting role.

Tom Savage also performed well in his first career action. The rookie signal caller played the entire second half and completed 15-of-23 passes for 135 yards and threw his initial touchdown in Scarlet. Redshirt senior Domenic Natale completed eight of 12 passes for 108 yards in a starting role as the Scarlet Knights compiled 243 yards through the air.

The Bearcats posted the contest's first points on the game's initial drive. Isaiah Pead broke the plane from two yards out to provide UC a 7-0 advantage with 12:31 remaining in the opening stanza.

The Scarlet Knights answered the early deficit, moving 70 yards in 20 plays that consumed 10:40 off the clock. The home squad converted two, fourth-and-one attempts in Cincinnati territory to sustain the effort. Sophomore RB Joe Martinek entered the end zone from four yards out on his tenth rush of the drive to produce a 7-7 tie with 1:47 showing on the first quarter clock.

UC regained the lead on its ensuing possession, Jacob Rogers split the uprights. After the teams traded interceptions, UC extended its lead to double figures, courtesy of a Travis Kelce four yard jaunt to pay dirt, to register a 17-7 score with 6:35 remaining in the half.

The Bearcats then added a pair of touchdowns before the midpoint. Pike connected with Mardy Gilyard on a five-yard toss and Pead and Pike joined for a 41-yard passing score.

Cincinnati scored twice in the third quarter to further extend its lead.

Savage spent the entire second half under center and ended the home squad's scoring drought early in the fourth stanza. The rookie led Rutgers on a 15-play, 80-yard drive that culminated with a seven-yard scoring toss to junior tight end Shamar Graves. Savage completed nine passes for 84 yards on the series, before connecting with Sanu for the two-point conversion, to register a 45-15 score with 11:25 remaining.

Cincinnati tacked-on a safety, via an intentional grounding call in the home end zone.

GAME 2

September 12, 2009
Rutgers 45, Howard 7

PISCATAWAY, N.J. – True freshman QB Tom Savage threw for 223 yards and two touchdowns in his first collegiate start to help Rutgers to a 45-7 victory over Howard Saturday at Rutgers Stadium. RU RB Jourdan Brooks rushed 17 times for 124 yards and three scores, while WR Tim Brown caught three passes for 132 yards and a touchdown, in the decisive win.

The Scarlet Knights scored 32 straight points to begin the game and posted points on seven consecutive possessions to conclude the opening half. Rutgers had four touchdown drives in the first 30 minutes that consisted of two plays or less, including a pair of single strikes, en route to 42 first half points.

Rutgers posted the contest's first points on a 24-yard field goal off the foot of San San Te. On RU's ensuing possession, the offense moved seamlessly downfield, travelling 82 yards on 11 plays that consumed 4:03. Brooks crossed the plane via a six-yard jaunt to provide a 10-0 advantage with 3:53 remaining in the opening stanza.

The first score of the second was achieved in quick and definitive fashion. Savage and former QB-turned-starting TE D.C. Jefferson connected on a 46-yard aerial, before the freshman hooked up with FB Jack Corcoran on a 21-yard scoring toss. The two play TD drive took just 39 seconds.

The next Rutgers score was enabled by the defense. On a first-and-10 play from the Howard 16, LB Antonio Lowery forced a fumble that was recovered by DT Charlie Noonan and returned to the visitor six-yard line. Two plays later, Brooks carried-in from two yards out to with 13:04 still to go before the break. A successful two-point conversion, courtesy of a Shamar Graves rush, enabled a 25-0 advantage. The following Rutgers drive would be the first of consecutive, single-play, scoring possessions. Savage and Brown joined on a 68-yard touchdown pass that increased the lead to 32-0 with 10:39 showing on the second quarter clock.

The Bison were able to end their scoring drought when QB Floyd Haigler threw a 40-yard touchdown pass to Willie Carter to put the visitors on the board, 32-7.

With a little over four minutes remaining before halftime, Brooks broke free for a 57-yard rushing touchdown. It marked the second straight, one-play, scoring drive for the home squad. The final points came courtesy of a 20-yard Te field goal.

RU compiled 341 total yards in the opening 30 minutes, while Howard managed 161. 223 of Rutgers' yards came via the passing game, as Brown accumulated all of 132 receiving yards prior to intermission. The lone score after halftime was a 30-yard field goal by Te.

Defensively, Rutgers was sparked by DE Jonathan Freeny and FS Zaire Kitchen. Freeny had three tackles-for-losses, including two sacks, a forced a fumble and a pair of quarterback hurries. Kitchen had a team-high eight total tackles.

Game Five - Texas Southern at Rutgers

GAME 3

September 19, 2009
Rutgers 23, Florida International 15

PISCATAWAY, N.J. - Sophomore RB Joe Martinek rushed for 121 yards on 23 carries and senior WR Tim Brown caught four passes for 131 yards to help Rutgers (2-1) to a 23-15 win over FIU (0-2) Saturday at Rutgers Stadium. The Scarlet Knights' defense registered five sacks and limited the Panthers to just 42 yards rushing in the victory.

Rutgers capitalized off a turnover to post the contest's first points. Redshirt freshman FS Khaseem Greene intercepted his first career pass and returned the aerial theft 32 yards to the FIU 32-yard line. Four plays later, San San Te split the uprights from 39 yards to provide the home squad a 3-0 edge with 7:43 showing on the first quarter clock.

Near the end of the first half, RU utilized three signal callers on a 10-play, 94-yard drive to pay dirt. After Tom Savage and Jabu Lovelace maneuvered the team downfield, Domenic Natale crossed the plane on a two-yard carry to produce a 10-0 advantage with 2:42 remaining before halftime.

Then, courtesy of good field position provided by a stingy defense, RU was able to tack on a field goal just before the break. After Rutgers forced a three-and-out, the Panthers were whistled for an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty deep in their own territory. The ensuing punt provided the home squad possession at the FIU 40-yard line. RU moved inside the red zone, before Te booted a 29-yard field goal to produce a 13-0 advantage.

The Rutgers defense limited Florida International to just three first downs in the opening 30 minutes, as the Panthers managed to enter Rutgers territory on just one possession, to the home 46-yard line.

After a scoreless third quarter, RU increased its lead in the early stages of the final stanza. A 27-yard Te field goal capped a 14-play, 70-yard drive. With the Panthers holding a first-and-10 at its 20 yard line, quarterback Paul McCall's pass was intercepted by senior LB Ryan D'Imperio. The team captain returned the pick 38 yards into the end zone for his first career score.

FIU was finally able to find the end zone. T.Y. Hilton caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from McCall to stop RU's string of 23 unanswered points. The result was a 23-7 score. The final points of the game also belonged to the Panthers. It was Hilton once again for the visitors, this time hauling a 14-yard scoring aerial from McCall.

Defensively, Rutgers was paced by senior DE George Johnson and junior DE Jonathan Freeny. Johnson had a team and career-high 10 total tackles, including one tackle-for-loss, and a fumble recovery. Freeny posted two sacks and a quarterback hurry.

GAME 4

September 26, 2009
Rutgers 34, Maryland 13

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Rutgers defeated Maryland 34-13, behind a stout effort from its defensive unit at Capital One Field at Byrd Stadium. The Scarlet Knights forced a total of five (three interceptions, two fumbles) turnovers against the Terrapins, including just 28 yards rushing by the Terps. Joe Martinek rushed for 147 yards and two touchdowns to lead RU offensively.

The Scarlet Knights recorded three interceptions in the game and posted two defensive touchdowns marking the first time during the Greg Schiano era RU had two defensive TDs.

Rutgers scored on the first offensive possession of the game, ironically, on Maryland's opening drive as junior LB Antonio Lowery intercepted a pass and returned it 36 yards into the end zone. It was Lowery's first career interception and touchdown.

The Terrapins narrowed the gap on their next drive, going 45 yards in five plays, culminating in a successful field goal attempt by Nick Ferrara to make it 7-3. The Scarlet Knights added three more points to their total at the start of the second quarter when an 11-play drive ended with a 23-yard field goal by sophomore San San Te for a 10-3 lead.

At the 13:26 mark of the second quarter, Maryland tied the score at 10-10 on a 24-yard touchdown pass from Chris Turner to LaQuan Williams. The Scarlet Knights and Terps then traded possessions with RU ending a Maryland drive prematurely after senior CB Devin McCourty intercepted another Turner pass at midfield. The interception was the fifth of his career.

Maryland took over the lead at the close of the first half, connecting on a 34-yard field goal by Ferrara for a 13-10 edge at halftime.

Junior SS Lefeged had a part in the Scarlet Knights' next scoring opportunity as he forced a fumble on Turner in the end zone, which was recovered by senior DE George Johnson to put RU ahead 17-13. The touchdown was RU's second defensive score of the game.

The Rutgers defense once again came up big as senior LB Damaso Munoz forced a fumble on MD running back Da'Rel Scott which was recovered by junior DE Alex Silvestro in UM territory at the 48 yard line. The fumble recovery set up Rutgers' next score as RU went 21 yards, for another Te field goal, this time from 37 yards out. His second successful kick of the game gave Rutgers a 20-13 lead at the 12:48 mark of the final stanza.

Martinek helped seal the victory with a pair of rushing touchdowns in the final five minutes of the game, scoring on runs of 28 yards and 61 yards.
