Chuck Warner's
2009 ARETE SWIM CAMP
At Rutgers University

Camper Conduct Agreement

As a member of the Rutgers University community, you will enjoy many of the same privileges as Rutgers students and are asked accept responsibility for mature, acceptable behavior. The following are the guidelines you are expected and agree to abide by:

Respect for others: Rutgers is a community that consists of different backgrounds and beliefs. Racist, sexist, insulting or hateful comments and behavior are unacceptable and will not be tolerated.

Noise and curfew: Rutgers is an academic community and consideration of others is expected. Failure to abide by noise and curfew regulations is a violation of campus rules. Resident campers must be in residences by 9:30 pm and lights out by 10:00 pm.

Substance abuse: Alcohol and illegal drugs are forbidden. Use of these substances will result in disciplinary action and immediate dismissal from camp.

Damages or loss: Campers are expected to respect the University property. All campers assume responsibility for damages or losses in residences. It is essential that rooms be kept locked at all times. The University and Arete Swim Camp are not responsible for lost or stolen items.

Use of facilities: All the facilities used at Arete Swim Camp are University properties. Pool and locker rooms are shared with faculty and student recreational swimmers. Please exercise respect and courtesy in the locker rooms and on the pool deck. The entrance ways, lobby, restrooms and other areas of Sonny Werblin Recreation Center all also shared with the Rutgers University community and must be treated with respect.

As an Arete Swim Camp participant, you are required to read and understand the above rules and to comply with camp policies. These guidelines will be reviewed during our camp orientation. Failure to regard the regulations will result in immediate dismissal from camp without refund.
